WA Chapter Jury/ies

The WA Chapter has a total of 13 juries, each responsible for a corresponding category and overseen by an overarching Jury Chair.

Jury 1	Public Architecture
Jury 2	Residential Architecture - Houses
Jury 3	Residential Architecture – Multiple Housing
Jury 4	Commercial Architecture
Jury 5	Heritage
Jury 6	Interior Architecture
Jury 7	Urban Design
Jury 8	Small Project
Jury 9	Sustainable Architecture
Jury 10	Colorbond Architecture
Jury 11	Mondoluce Lighting Award
Jury 12	George Temple Poole Jury
Jury 13	Houses - Alterations + Additions Category

The WA Chapter jury process consists of :

1. The relevant jury will review all entries in their category
2. Entrants are requested to formally present their building/project to the category jury at the Presentation Day. Juries will sit simultaneously in presentation rooms and entrants will have 7 minutes to present and 3 minutes for questions and answers on their awards submissions. Not compulsory to present but strongly encouraged.
3. Each entry in the awards will be visited in the metropolitan area. If the project is outside the metropolitan area and cannot be visited by the jury by car in one day (eg requires airline travel or an overnight stay) the jury will determine from the presentation if a visit is required. If after discussion it is decided that the project requires further investigation then one jury member will visit the site and report back to the other jury members.
